

Contemporary Circus & Classical Music

PRESS RELEASE

International Salieri Circus Award has been ideated in Legnago, Italy, the city that gave birth to the musician Antonio Salieri. It's the only competitive circus festival on the international scene whose fil rouge is classical music blended with contemporary circus. A meeting that in some cases has already taken place, but in this festival it is the element that stimulates artists and choreographers for the setting of specific numbers.

The artistic director is Antonio Giarola, former producer in the past of the VERONACIRCO International Festival and nowadays director for the Nikulin circus in Moscow and for the HITEN Show in China.

The eagerly awaited Festival will have more than twenty participants in competition and will take place in Legnago at the Salieri Theater from 23rd to 27th September 2021.

Information on www.saliericircus.it

International Salieri Circus Award

Segreteria organizzativa: PROEVENTI Soc coop – Via A. Garbini, 15 – 37135 VERONA